Springbank Community High School Rules and Regulations for Writing All Final Examinations

1. Students must return their textbooks to the SCHS Foyer prior to writing their exam.
2. Students will be called to the gym approx. 15 minutes in advance of the examination start time. If a student is late for the examination, no additional time will be allotted.
3. No admission into an exam after one hour of testing has expired.
4. Backpacks, books, coats, purses, hats, etc. are NOT allowed into the exam room. Phones, iPods, and wearable technology are NOT allowed into the exam room. Books, notes, and anything from which a student may derive assistance are not permitted. Snacks are permitted in exams last more than 2 hours but must be in a clear plastic bag. Water bottles are permitted.
5. Students must bring their own pencils, erasers, approved calculators, etc.
6. Students will sit in the seat assigned.
7. Photo Identification (School ID, Driver's License, or other government issued ID) is required for all students.
8. Only students who are excused in advance by administration will be allowed to defer examinations. A medical note must accompany absences due to illness. Students may defer school based exams for religious or cultural observances.
9. Students must remain in the exam room for a minimum of one hour. At the one-hour mark, students with completed exams will be dismissed by the exam supervisor.
10. Students must keep their work covered and keep their eyes on their own papers. No student shall copy from or exchange any materials with another, nor shall a student leave an answer paper so exposed. A student shall not talk or communicate with other students during the exam.
11. During the examination, a student shall not ask the supervisor for any explanation or statement in reference to any question on an examination paper. Students should report missing pages or printing irregularities immediately.
12. At the conclusion of writing an exam, the student is expected to put their hand up, get a supervisor to check their exam, proceed to the back of the gym, sign out on the class list and quietly exit the gym area. The gathering area and adjacent hallways will remain clear during exams.
13. Failure to comply may result in disqualification.

Administration to set up and start all exams.
